2019 - Toronto

2019-09-19 05:15:19

Quo Vadis is the name of a series of international conferences bringing together students and young professionals of Polish heritage from all around the globe

Focused on the themes of heritage, leadership and unity, Quo Vadis Conferences offer delegates both a valuable opportunity to network with fellow young Poles, and the chance to learn practical skills from first-class speakers and presenters.

Today, Quo Vadis has become more than just a three-day annual event - it has grown into a truly global initiative. Over the past 10 years, there have been eleven editions of the conference held in cities across Canada, the United States and Australia. As of 2019, there are already over 1,200 Quo Vadis alumni worldwide, and counting.

Don't miss your chance to join the movement!
